- Gain insights in the integration of a corporate real estate management (CREM) concept into Bayer's business strategy
- Support Bayer's global real estate activities by developing new and maintaining existing processes as well as technical, legal and commercial standards
- Carry out data analysis and prepare respective presentations for the CREM Management Team
- Communicate and collaborate across functional and geographical boundaries

WHO YOU ARE

- Currently in the second half of studies of real estate management (or similar)
- Interested in more than only real estate and with an affinity to the business of Bayer
- Excellent analytical skills with an affinity for numbers
- Enjoy creating forward looking ideas and concepts as well as being open-minded to new challenges
- Fluency in English (written and spoken) is a prerequisite, German of advantage

YOUR APPLICATION

We offer a voluntary internship for the maximum duration of three months (unless you have already joined the Bayer Real Estate for a voluntary internship before) or a mandatory internship according to the required length starting 01.01.2015. Please apply online submitting a cover letter, your CV, certificates, proof of enrollment as well as internship guidelines of your university.
