

Internship – Investment Banking

Brookfield Financial is a global investment bank that provides advisory services to the real estate and infrastructure sectors. Brookfield Financial has the ability to serve corporate and institutional clients on both local market and international transactions, with offices located in the United States, Canada, Europe, Australia, Brazil, and India. Brookfield Financial's core practice areas include M&A, Debt Placement, Financial Advisory, Asset Brokerage, and Structured Transactions.

About Brookfield Asset Management

Brookfield is a global alternative asset manager with over $150 billion in assets under management. The company has an over 100-year history of owning and operating assets with a focus on property, renewable power, infrastructure and private equity. Brookfield Financial is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brookfield Asset Management.

The Role

Brookfield Financial is looking to add an Intern to the London office for a duration of 3-6 months, who will work closely with its established team of investment banking professionals, focused primarily on real estate. The position provides an excellent opportunity for an Intern to work on high profile transactions throughout Europe and interact with and support the global investment banking network. It offers an exciting position in a rapidly growing global investment bank, which is owned and sponsored by a strong, stable, publicly-traded asset manager.

The Candidate

- Undergraduate degree in business, finance, economics or engineering, with an excellent academic background
- Good analytical and financial modeling skills with Microsoft Excel
- Strong writing skills and proficiency with Microsoft Word and PowerPoint
- Self-motivated individual with a high level of attention to detail
- Ability to work well in a dynamic and entrepreneurial environment
- Outstanding interpersonal and client service skills
- Previous real estate, infrastructure, and/or M&A experience is beneficial but not a prerequisite
- Strong written and oral communication skills in English and German

Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis
