

At Ernst & Young, we support you in achieving your unique potential wherever you are in the world – both personally and professionally. We give you stretching and rewarding experiences that keep you motivated, by working in an atmosphere of integrity with some of the world's most successful companies. And while we encourage you to take personal responsibility for your career, we support you in your professional development in every way we can. You enjoy the flexibility to devote time to what matters to you, in your business and personal life. At Ernst & Young, we know it's your point of view, energy and enthusiasm that make the difference.

Ernst & Young is supporting clients with the largest integrated real estate practice of any Big Four firm. Since Luxembourg is a preferred option for real estate fund domiciliation we are expanding our reach far beyond the country's borders.

In order to continue the growth of our Advisory department, Ernst & Young in Luxembourg is looking to recruit starting July 2013:

Real Estate Valuation Advisors (m/f)

Your responsibilities:

As a Real Estate Valuation Advisor, you will make contributions to both client engagements and internal projects. You will perform real estate valuation reviews and analysis and, in addition, opinions of value reports and advisory work, as well as being involved in drafting written file notes, letters, presentations and reports, presenting conclusions to the rest of the team and contributing to the presentations of our work and findings to the client. Given our international and diversified client base you will gain a thorough understanding and in-depth knowledge of different aspects of international real estate markets across different sectors (office, retail, logistics, residential and hotel), with a particular focus on Europe. Within your role, you will obtain regular feedback on a timely basis and be alert to learning and development opportunities. You will be supported in actively establishing and developing external and internal relationships, helping to create a positive learning culture within the team.

Your profile:

- MSc Degree with a specialization in Real Estate with relevant real estate internship experience;
- Sound knowledge of real estate valuation methods and approaches to valuation;
- Fluent in English and German - knowledge of French and/or Luxembourgish languages will be considered as an asset;

- Proficient in working with Microsoft Excel;
- Proactive, eager to learn and grow, with strong communication and interpersonal skills both internally and in client facing situations;
- Willing to obtain RICS qualification;
- Willing to travel abroad.
